

How Much More

by Mark Oliver

Key: Ab

Intro:

Ab Eb/G Db Ab (repeat)

Verse 1:

Ab Eb/G
It's a fruitless endeavor, the things we hold so tight
Db Ab
We can't trust in what we see, or what we feel
Ab Eb/G
Of all the things I've clung to, the one thing that one thing that remains -
Db Ab
The only sure foundation is You

Verse 2:

Ab Eb/G
For the heart is but a store room, to which I hold the key
Db Ab
Filled with pearls and hidden treasures I possess
Ab Eb/G
And You ask me to unlock the door, and give it all away
Db Ab
To pour it out until there's nothing left to give

Prechorus:

Db Eb
And how much more do You have for me?
Db Eb
How much more, that I just don't see?

Chorus:

Ab Eb/G
For the things I see, that I hold onto
Bbm Ab Eb
Are just a vapor, just a grasping for the wind
Ab Eb/G
But the things unseen, established in eternity
Bbm Ab Eb
Are the only things that matter in the end
Db Eb
And how much more do You have for me?

Bridge:

Ab Eb/G
If I could take those things I love, and turn them into how I love
Bbm Ab Eb
how much more, would I be like You?
Ab Eb/G
To release the gifts You give so freely, all the passions You've placed in me
Bbm Ab Eb
How much more, would I understand the truth?
Db Eb
And how much more, do You have for me?
Db Eb
How much more, that I just don't see?
Db Eb
How much more, could I be?
